

Course Overview

This course provides a basic understanding of how to deal with a crime scene within the licensed hospitality industry.

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for anyone who is likely to be in contact with victims, offenders or witnesses to incidents that require a Police, Fire Service or Local Authority investigation.

Course Objectives

- Recognise what constitutes a 'Crime Scene'
 - Understand the best ways to assist a police investigation
 - Preserve evidence effectively
 - Identify witnesses and maximise their evidential capacity
 - Identify and detain suspects in the most efficient way
 - Understand the need to record evidence and the best ways to capture it
 - Understand the ramifications of not dealing with an incident correctly.
-

Benefits

- This first level awareness course will help to demonstrate a Company's pro-active approach to incident management to a Licensing Authority.
 - Reduce the number of failed investigations and therefore improve the likelihood of successful prosecution following an incident.
-

Duration: 2 hours

Course Content

- Communicating with colleagues, the emergency services and the public
- Recognising a crime scene and identifying the best sources of forensic evidence
- What procedures to follow at a crime scene – the Victim, Offender, Witness model
- Use of reasonable force. What can I do legally and how do I justify it?
- Positional Asphyxia and Excited Delirium – What are they and how do we deal with them?
- The importance of Incident Reporting – who should make notes and how are they relevant to the authorities and your business?
- The powers to detain people

Assessment

Exercises and open discussion are used to reinforce classroom learning.

Contact us

If you should have any questions or wish to discuss this course further, please contact us on:

08450 564 240 or email: training@ultraservicesgroup.co.uk