

Course Overview

This half-day course provides a basic understanding of how to identify, handle and dispose of sharps and other drugs related litter.

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for anyone required to manage drugs related litter safely.

Course Objectives

- Recognise drugs related litter
 - Know how to take safe and appropriate action upon finding drugs related litter
 - Understand the health risks associated with drugs related litter
 - Learn methods for handling and disposing of sharps and other drugs litter
 - Know what actions to take if you sustain a needle stick injury.
-

Benefits

- This first level awareness training will help your Company to meet its duty to provide task specific safety training and instruction to its employees.
 - Enhance the safety of staff required to handle and dispose of drugs related litter.
-

Duration: ½ Day

Course Content

- Introduction to drugs paraphernalia
- Recovery, handling and disposal of sharps and drug paraphernalia
- Health risks associated with handling and disposal
- First Aid response to a sharps injury
- Understanding Drug User Behaviour Patterns
- Understanding when, what and how to report to the police
- Identifying potential drug users and managing confrontation
- Recognising new drug trends

Assessment

Exercises and open discussion are used to reinforce classroom learning

Contact us

If you should have any questions or wish to discuss this course further, please contact us on:

08450 564 240 or

email: training@ultraservicesgroup.co.uk